SUMMARY

APPLICATION N° 003/ 2013

In the matter of: RUTABINGWA CHRYSANTHE

V.

THE REPUBLIC OF RWANDA

Facts of the matter:

1 Mr. RUTABINGWA Chrysanthe was recruited by an official State Technical Committee to work as an expert in charge of the audit and evaluation of the Secretariat for Privatization. The recruitment decision was approved by the Council of Ministers on 17 September 1999. By Decision No. 116/PRIV/BR/RU of Mr. Robert BAYIGAMBA, Executive Secretary of the Service, the Applicant was dismissed on 27 February 2001. He was blamed for committing a very serious offence, that of divulging confidential documents of the institution.

Procedure

2 By an Application dated 18 March 2013, Mr RUTABINGWA Chrysanthe filed an application against the Republic of Rwanda at the Registry of the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights. The Registry acknowledged receipt of the application and registered it under the case number Application 003/2013.

Alleged violations

3 According to his application, the Applicant alleges that Articles 10 and 11 of the Rwandan Constitution have been violated.

Prayers

4 The Applicant prays the Court to:

- Declare his application admissible
- Annul Decision No 116/PRIV/BR/RU on dismissal for serious offence, as having been taken through abuse of power and is inconsistent with the laws and the constitution of Rwanda.
- Order the State of Rwanda to pay his salary from the date of dismissal (27 February 2001) to the date of reinstatement.
- Order the State to provide him with a house and buy him a jeep.
